SCRIPTURE 2.0 COULD BE FOR YOU

Do you feel like your neighbors are more comfortable with the bible than you are? Does reading the Bible leave you more confused than enlightened? Are you ready to go deeper into the Scriptures? Are you ready to go beyond “just reading” the Scriptures?

SCRIPTURE 2.0 is a comprehensive study of scripture that covers every book of the Bible from a Catholic perspective.

The program is based on contemporary research by Catholic scholars in the field of biblical studies.

SCRIPTURE 2.0 is broken into 12 basic units so you can begin where you are.

SCRIPTURE 2.0 meets twice a month on Thursday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00 pm beginning November 10, 2016.

For more information or to register Contact Dave Corder at 209-823-7197 or email david@st-anthonys.org

Prayer Shawl Ministry

If someone would like to request a shawl (for ladies) or lap robe (for men), please contact Kathleen Gomes at prayer.shawls@comcast.net. Shawls and lap robes are not just for those who are ill; they are also given out to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary. A message of love and caring comes with each shawl or lap robe and the giving of the shawl or lap robe enriches the giver as well as the recipient.

A CHILD'S GIFT

Give a little love to a child, and you get a great deal back.
—John Ruskin

Lost and Found

Have you lost a pair of glasses, or a scarf? How about a set of keys or a piece of jewelry? If so, please stop by the parish office and see if it is in our lost and found. We hold on to items for 6 months, after, if it is not reclaimed we donate it to charity.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the seventeenth century, English Catholics, many of them wealthy and well educated, looked to the American colonies as a place to regain a measure of religious freedom. In Ireland, the so-called penal laws were even harsher than in England, as a minority Parliament tried to force the conversion of the population by denying the majority political and economic power. Beginning in 1691, laws were passed that punished dissenters, principally Catholics, but also causing hardship for Jews, Quakers, and others. There were acts forbidding “mixed marriage” or sending children “beyond the seas” for schooling. Catholics were taxed at double the common rate, barred from the legal professions and from university, and not allowed to build churches or own a decent horse.

In 1793 the situation began to change, as it became clear that the economic persecution would not drive the majority away from Catholicism. Gradually, laws were repealed until by 1829 freedom was won, although Catholics at university were ineligible for honors, and until the 1920s and the Republic, the Church of Ireland was the state church, funded by the taxes of all citizens.

Lecturas De Hoy

Primera lectura — Los siete hermanos se someten a la tortura y a la muerte más bien que violar la ley de Dios (2 Macabeos 7:1-2, 9-14).

Salmo — Al despertar, Señor, contemplaré tu rostro (Salmo 17 [16]).

Segunda lectura — Que el Señor y Dios nuestro Padre los anime y fortalezca en todas las obras y palabras buenas (2 Tesalonicenses 2:16 — 3:5).

Evangelio — Aquellos que son dignos de llegar a la edad futura y a la resurrección de los muertos son hijos del Dios de los vivos (Lucas 20:27-38 [27, 34-38]).

Salmo responsorial: Leccionario II © 1976, Comisión Episcopal de Pastoral Litúrgica de la Conferencia del Episcopado Mexicano. Usado con permiso. Todos los derechos reservados.

VIDA ETERNA

El segundo libro de los Macabeos relata una historia poderosa, y bastante horrible por cierto. Pero la clave de ella, más allá de la horrible muerte infligida a los hermanos y su madre, es su fe en la promesa de resurrección y vida eterna en Dios.

Pablo les pide a los tesalonicenses que recen por él mientras difunde el mensaje de amor de Cristo, para que pueda librarse de los no creyentes que quieren hacerle daño. El apóstol confía en esas oraciones, lo mismo que confía en el continuo apoyo de Jesús y de Dios Padre.

Y ahí está otra vez la palabra “continuo”. Los saduceos, que no se creían la idea tan fácilmente, le hacen a Jesús una interesante —aunque insignificante— pregunta acerca del estatus de la vida matrimonial después de la resurrección. Les responde a los no creyentes que el matrimonio no es un tema para los hijos de Dios resucitados. Más importante, les asegura que sus ancestros continúan vivos en Dios, como es evidente en las palabras del Padre a Moisés.

"That special power of loving that belongs to a woman is seen most clearly when she becomes a mother. Motherhood is the gift of God to women.... So anything that destroys God's gift of motherhood destroys His most precious gift to women—the ability to love as a woman."

St. Anthony's Giving Tree

Christmas time is coming soon and we are preparing for our annual giving tree. Last year we distributed gifts to over 750 needy children in our community, including the women's shelter. This year we are in need of Christmas cards, gift wrap, gift bags, ribbons, bows, and tape. We are also in need of caring adults who are interested in volunteering their time and talent to ensure that those who are in need experience a little bit more joy on Christmas day. Please contact Angelique, in the parish religious education office for information
